DIARY OF A DARK-SKINNED DIVA (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Beauty is only skin-deep, then why does the color of that skin matter so much? Why does it create dividing lines within one's own race, community, and even the family? From birth, Jinnie was darker than her siblings, and relatives unthinkingly punished her for it. She learned early that those with lighter skin-tones in the black community were considered smarter, prettier, and...
