A Little Princess is a children s novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett, first published as a book in 1905. It is an expanded version of the short story Sara Crewe: or, What Happened at Miss Minchin s, which was serialized in St. Nicholas Magazine from December 1887. According to Burnett, after she composed the 1902 play A Little Un-fairy Princess based on that story, her publisher asked that she expand the story as a novel with the things and people that had been left out before. The novel was published by Charles Scribner s Sons (also publisher of St. Nicholas) with the full title A Little Princess: Being the Whole Story of Sara Crewe Now Being Told for the First Time. Based on a 2007 online poll, the U.S. National Education Association named the book one of its Teachers Top 100 Books for Children. In 2012 it was ranked number 56 among all-time children s novels in a survey published by School Library Journal, a monthly with primarily U.S. audience.
