A HAUNT OF JACKALS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sometime in the near future, the electrical grid will fail. Communications will cease. Food distribution will grind to a halt. Experts say modern society is just nine meals away from chaos. When the super markets are no longer a source for food, when parents watch their children shivering in the cold, what will happen to people with no idea how to fend for themselves? This is a story about the night it happens, this is a record of the choices they make. Sargent Red Morton is a veteran prison guard, left alone in the world by the tragic deaths of his wife and son. Caught in a spiral of despair, his only remaining family are the young guards who look to him for leadership in a concrete and iron cage housing 2000 of the worst society has to offer. He ll have to pull himself together if he wants to hold on to his spot as leader of the unit. Sy and Kara Bradshaw are a brother and sister team trying to keep their little hunting lodge alive in an economic depression. Only by entertaining and befriending the fabulously wealthy have they survived in a world with little opportunity. But Kara has secrets of her own. She ll have to keep those secrets from driving a wedge among her friends and family. Darwin King is billionaire business man on a hunting trip at the Bradshaw s lodge. There he s joined by three generations of the Casey family, one of his richest and most profitable clients. Together they ve built a business empire spanning the globe. This is a special trip, one the elder Casey will use to announce ambitious plans for...
