Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Feiler | Der Preisführer für eure Super Nintendo Spiele-Sammlung. Mit über 500 Spielen! | The 1990s what a time! Eurodance, XXL shirts, Vodka Ahoi and gaming until you drop. The most precious thing found in every kids room made from best pine veneers of course was the Super Nintendo. Whoever owned one was all of a sudden most popular amongst their friends. But the times passed quickly new games, faster consoles and advanced graphics made most people quickly forget Super Nintendo. However, today this system is as present as rarely ever before. Ever since a few years, a collectors scene has been thriving and makes the prices especially for games reach breathtaking levels. With SNES Collector s Guide 2014 we provide you with the first pricing guide that informs you realistic market prices regarding your games. No matter if you are collector, retro fan or a nostalgic this pricing guide will certainly be good for a surprise! | With SNES Collectors Guide you are provided with the first printed pricing guide for Super Nintendo games. An increasing number of games enthusiasts, retro fans and nostalgics have established a vibrant collectors scene throughout the past years. However, so far reliable information on current market prices for the system distributed in Europe between 1992 and 1998 does not at all exist. In cooperation with long and much committed collector Thomas Michelfeit we managed to fully map this still young and rapidly evolving thematic collection sector. We sorted far more than 500 games in alphabetical order as per their title and displayed them with their package cover. For each game, the year of release, genre, publisher and also developer are specified along with the respectively current market price in Euro. The games are classified in three individual states of condition:...
