Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed federal agencies procurement of private health club memberships for their employees, focusing on: (1) policies and controls over such procurements; (2) the extent and adequacy of existing governmentwide guidance pertaining to these procurements; and (3) the granting of administrative leave for employees to participate in physical fitness activities. GAO found that: (1) 15 of 77 surveyed agencies reported having procured physical fitness services from a variety of facilities; (2) the annual federal funding for those procurements was about $970,000 and involved 4,287 participating employees, and the average cost per participating employee ranged from $12 to $644; (3) agencies policies and controls over fitness facility procurements varied widely; (4) a significant number of agencies believed they needed further guidance on issues pertaining to fitness facility procurement, including employees contribution to membership cost, provision of compensation under the Federal Employees Compensation Act, and controls needed to monitor employee attendance and use of facilities; (5) 25 agencies allowed employees to use administrative leave for participating in physical fitness activities, but their practices varied widely; and (6) in February 1992, the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) issued draft guidance to departments and agencies recommending that they deny administrative leave for extended or indefinite periods of participation in such activities.
