Proverbs 16: 20 When God calls he finds a combination of ways to reach us. Perhaps his spoken word is a peaceful vision while engaged in meditation, an expression in a book, a message in a sermon, an unanticipated letter, or words from a spiritual friend. When he plants the seeds in our hearts no words are necessary. God attempts to interact in conversation with us daily. Unfortunately, we become distracted by worldly things. It is time to forget our egotistical minds and superstitions and join in our global needs walking together hand in hand encouraging one another. Remain steadfast possessing a grateful heart to prepare the way to accept Gods call. Pray to be in spiritual harmony to walk in his light. God seeks you now. Be bold-spirited enough to let him use you to help someone else. ABOUT THE AUTHOR With thirty-five years of management and motivational speaking, Gail nurtured her students to achieve their goals.
