Excerpt: . . . over the same has passed to the State of Kansas in the act admitting that State into the Union, and it will be necessary to obtain a cession of jurisdiction from the State. In 1800, Captain Van Vliet, post quartermaster, leased to a mining company the privilege of mining coal under the reservation for a period of sixteen years, the company agreeing to furnish free of charge all the coal required by the Government at the post, and to pay a royalty of J cent per bushel on all other coal mined there. This lease was declared invalid without the approval of Congress. July 20, 1808, Congress authorized the sale of 20 acres of land in the southeast corner of the reservation to another company, and extended to it the same privileges, on the same conditions, for the same period. Although mining has been going on for several years, the Government has realized nothing beyond the amount received for the land, (1, 400, ) as the company have avoided mining under the reservation. The Missouri Pacific Railroad passes through the reserve on the bank of the river. The Kansas Central, a narrow-gauge road, crosses the reserve from east to west. The Missouri Bridge Company were authorized by Congress to construct a railroad and wagon bridge on the reservation across the Missouri. This is an iron truss-bridge of three spans, used at present by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad. The reservation and arrangement...
