Frisk barn manger waiting frisked grain missed hiding Do I look like the little squirrel whose home is in the trees? I am a very interesting little creature. My color is brownish gray. Some people call me the striped squirrel. That is because there are five black stripes and two pale yellow ones on my back and sides. These stripes extend from my neck to my tail. My neck and breast are white. Surely I cannot be taken for any other animal. Don t you think you would know me if you should meet me (Other people call me the chipping squirrel, or chipmunk. My chipping cry, which is like the chirping of a young chicken, gives me that name. But I am a little squirrel, burrowing in the ground. I have a long, bushy tail, which curves...
