G.P. Putnam s Sons Books for Young Readers, United States, 2002. Hardback. Condition: New. Maira Kalman (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. * A hundred years from now, when people want to know what we told our children about 9/11, Kalman s book should be among the first answers. --Booklist, starred review * Intelligently conveys those unfathomable events in a way that a picture book audience can comprehend. . . . With this inspiring book, Kalman sensitively handles a difficult subject in an age-appropriate manner. --Publishers Weekly, starred review * Fireboat does many things. It sets forth an adventure, helps commemorate an anniversary, offers an interesting bit of history, celebrates the underdog, and honors the fire-fighting profession. Children and adults will respond to it in as many ways. --School Library Journal, starred review * Exciting, uplifting, and child-sensitive. . . . Revisits the tragedy without the terror and conveys pride without preachiness. --The Bulletin of the Center for Children s Books, starred review * Quintessential New York artist Kalman gives us an idiosyncratic but informative look at a Big Apple institution. . . . Kalman s use of the events of September 11 is honest and honorable, and rarely is she as straightforward as she is here. --The Horn Book, starred review This is the inspiring true story of the John J. Harvey--a retired New York City fireboat reinstated on September 11, 2001. Originally launched in 1931, the Harvey was the most powerful fireboat of her time. After the September 11 attacks, with fire hydrants at Ground Zero inoperable and the Hudson River s water supply critical to fighting the blaze, the fire department called on the Harvey for help. There were adjustments--forcing water into hoses by jamming soda bottles and wood into nozzles with a sledgehammer--and then the...
