

Im Not Sure About God: Jesus is a different matter

By William Armitage

Words In The Works, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 110 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. Armitage's book arrived yesterday. I finished it last night. Part memoir, part spiritual reflection, it brought me, at once, to both tears and laughter. In reading Armitage's personal journey, I found myself taking a similar one into my own background and beliefs. Amazon 1 best-selling author, Traci Medford-Rosow In his debut book, Im Not Sure About God, writer William Armitage takes a look at his spiritual side, his faith, and his changing perception of God. He shares his thoughts about Jesus and the perennial lessons he taught us. He introduces us to Arthur, a complete stranger who mysteriously seems to know more about William than William knows about himself. He talks about the signs and coincidences that seem to pop up in his life with increasing frequency. And he describes the root cause of the disillusionment that gripped him after he became a Certified Lay Speaker. Finally, he shares some of the Sunday morning chats he gave during the brief time he was preaching. And as he says, even if something in them connects with just one person, the hours he spent working on them...
