

The Coat That Father Weaved

By Carrie D Franklin

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Father Jacob gathered the material to make Joseph a coat of many colors, he knew just what he needed to get the coat completed. He shirred a beautiful white lamb and carefully combed and curried all the burs and thistles from the fine wool he had taken from the lamb. Little did he know that the coat he was to make for Joseph, his dear son, would stir such a stink with his brothers and separate Joseph from the family. Joseph was a great man who had learned to foretell dreams. He had told Pharaoh what his dream meant, thus saving the great land of Egypt from seven years of famine, to be sent from God Almighty. Because of this, Joseph was made Governor of Egypt while Pharaoh was Ruler. Joseph s brothers did bow down to him and ask forgiveness for the great wrong they had done to him when they sold him to a band of traders, who also sold spices and other goods which they gathered mostly by dishonest deeds. The band of traders...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is writter in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
